

List of Open Events 2025/26

Open Events are great opportunities to visit education providers, meet staff, and ask questions. We encourage you to attend as many as possible. Colleges are listed in purple, Apprenticeship providers in blue, Sixth Forms are in green.

Please check websites prior to travel, in case there have been any late changes – if you are using the electronic version of this document, you can visit each provider's website by clicking on their name.

Meanwhile, you can visit <https://www.stanleytrust.co.uk/sport-and-health/football-college/> for more information, and to apply.

Training 2000

Training 2000 haven't identified any specific Open Events yet, but there will be some. Visit <https://www.training2000.co.uk/events/> to find out, and we will update the information on this list.

Please note that Apprenticeship vacancies generally get advertised from January onwards for that year's school leavers. You can't fill out an application form for a vacancy – you'll have to apply, following the instructions listed on the vacancy (usually with a CV).

North Lancs Training Group (NLTG)

NLTG don't generally have Open Events. They list their vacancies at www.gov.uk/apply-apprenticeships and again, like other Apprenticeship providers, they will list their vacancies from January 2026 onwards.

You can't fill out an application form for a vacancy – you'll have to apply, following the instructions listed on the vacancy (usually with a CV).

British Aerospace (Apprenticeships)

BAE Systems are well known for their world-class Engineering Apprenticeships, but they also offer them in other subject areas such as Human Resources and Finance.

To apply, you must access the BAE Systems Apprenticeships microsite here,

The two BAE sites closest to us are Samlesbury and Warton, and they offer Engineering Craft, Engineering Technician, Manufacturing Engineering, Supply Chain Practitioner, and Business Administration.
